Twenty-eight British Columbia 4-H senior members applied for B.C. 4-H Provincial Scholarships this year. Awarding these scholarships was a very difficult task as all applicants were truly outstanding. Congratulations to the scholarship winners and all of the deserving applicants. The 2010 selection committee would also like to acknowledge that the quality of applications has improved and thanks applicants for including copies of their external 4-H school credit certificates. Applicants should review Publication #129, Opportunities Guide and Application Package 2011 for specific scholarship application requirements.

We would like to thank the following 2010 Provincial 4-H Scholarship donors who are to be complimented for their belief in 4-H youth, the future leaders of tomorrow.

Operating for almost 100 years, B.C. 4-H is one of British Columbia's longest-running and most respected youth organizations. A non-profit organization, B.C. 4-H is dedicated to youth development.

The B.C. 4-H program provides over 2100 young people with an opportunity to learn how to become productive, self-assured adults who can make their community an excellent place in which to live. This is fostered through project and program work, experiences with other 4-H club members and leaders and participation in district, regional and provincial programs.
